

On your honor, do NOT let our media and news source choices be further restricted by allowing companies to own a larger share of the airwaves than they now possess. A free media, including freedom from narrow corporate interests, is essential to a free democracy.